KELLOGG RETIREES - Cornhusker Chapter

Are you retired or soon-to-be retired? Are you ready to try something new? Come join us and meet old friends through the Kellogg Retiree's Cornhusker Chapter.

First organized in 1994, the Kellogg Retirees Cornhusker Chapter has grown over the past 25 years. The chapter was founded with the idea that any Kellogg Company retiree may join regardless of the number of years they had worked. As a non-profit organization, the chapter promotes fellowship among all recognized members through the hosting of various events throughout the year and encourages continued interest in civic and community affairs. The Cornhusker Chapter currently hosts three luncheons, two dinners, and a bus trip to Prairie Band Casino and Resort located north of Topeka, Kansas. The Executive Board, which organizes the events, is currently made up of 24 volunteers who work diligently to make these occasions successful.

Even though the slots are currently full, we are always on the lookout for any retirees who wish to volunteer their time and talent for the organization.

If you wish to join us, please contact any of the following individuals:
Tom Lemon (402) 689-9104; Linda Ryan (402) 670-9414; or Dave Wager (402) 493-4557.

You may also contact the chapter through its website, found at www.cornhuskerkelloggretirees.com
